

About our school and instructors

The School of Royal Yoga is an international school dedicated to teaching Yoga, Meditation and Seminars for over 25 years.

Our Certified Teachers have many years of comprehensive training and experience in bringing Contemplation and Meditation to people from every walk of life. Meditation classes are currently running at our studios as well as on-site within many corporations. Yoga classes are offered for beginners and intermediate-level students, teens, children, mothers and babies, and parents and toddlers. We offer teacher training for all of our programs.

Meditation can increase creativity and productivity

Studies have shown that increased peace can improve our health and well-being.

How does this happen?

Meditation shifts activity in the prefrontal cortex of the brain, reorienting the body from stressful "fight or flight" mode. It increases brain-wave activity which enhances intuition.

Yoga, Meditation and Mindfulness students express an increased feeling of creativity, contentment, focus, and concentration.

A variety of options, tailored to your needs

Introduction to Meditation: Conventions, Conferences and Lunch and Learn presentations. These presentations incorporate Understanding the Benefits of Meditation, How to Get Started, Correct Breathing Techniques, Mindfulness and a Guided Experiential Session.

On-site Meditation Courses before, during or after work hours at your location.

Telephone Meditation Courses by conference call access.

On-line Audio-visual Instruction on meditation and calming techniques available through a link on the corporate intranet. Usually 10-12 minutes in length.

Meditate at your work station!

Webinars: Employees join through computer and phone access for live audio and visual instruction. This format can be used as an Introduction to Meditation or for ongoing classes.
